The Somme Remembered: 1. The Battle of the Somme is synonymous with remembrance of the First World War and the futility of trench warfare. Fighting at the Battle of the Somme began on 1st July 1916 and lasted four and a half months. 2. In total, 60 nations from across the British Commonwealth and Europe were involved in the fighting across a 25 kilometer front. 3. There were almost 60,000 Allied casualties on the first day of the battle. Of these 2000 were from Ireland (mainly men of the 36th Ulster Division, the only unit to secure its objective that day, and the Irish of Tyneside and Liverpool). 4. 460 men from the now Republic of Ireland died on July 1st 1916. 5. The German losses were estimated to be 8,000. 6. Later in the battle between September 1st-9th, similar losses would be suffered by the men of the 16th (Irish) Division during their successful liberation of the Somme villages of Guillemont and Ginchy. Among the Irish dead were the poet and Nationalist M.P. Tom Kettle. Poem: To my daughter Betty, The gift of God In wiser days, my darling rosebud, blown To beauty proud as was your mother's prime. In that desired, delayed, incredible time, You'll ask why I abandoned you, my own, And the dear heart that was your baby throne, To dice with death. And oh! They'll give you rhyme And reason: some will call the thing sublime, And some decry it in a knowing tone. So here, while the mad guns curse overhead, And tired men sigh with mud for couch and floor, Know that we fools, now with the foolish dead, Died not for flag, nor King, nor Emperor, But for a dream, born in a herdsman's shed, And for the secret Scripture of the poor. Thomas Kettle
