Famine in East Africa: A National Church collection will be held on the weekend of 22nd July to fund life saving aid for people currently affected by the devastating hunger crisis in East Africa.

The money raised will go directly to Trócaire's emergency response, which is helping to deliver food, water, healthcare and other life saving aid to people affected. Severe drought, driven by climate change, is currently affecting Kenya, South Sudan, Somalia and Ethiopia, and this has resulted in failed harvests and the widespread death of livestock. Approximately 25 million people have been left facing severe food shortages. Conflict has exacerbated the effects in South Sudan and Somalia, with areas in both countries now on the verge of famine. Announcing the collection, Archbishop Eamon Martin, Archbishop of Armagh said the situation is critical and urged support for the collection from parishioners.

Today's Gospel The gospel is a story about people trying to do well and often not much comes from it. One mother said, 'I hope I'll see some of my children at the altar again before I die'. A football trainer said, I wish we won matches when he was in school – but the fruit of all the hours came later when he scored goals for the county! A big point of this story is about the fruits – 30-, 60-, 100-fold. When we work at love or faith, the deeper things of life, some-thing good happens. We try to hand on faith in the family and school situations. Sometimes we feel we see little return for our work. Or we give time to the family in many ways and see little return for our love. The consoling point of the story – we never know when or where there will be the fruits of our love ... Love given is never lost. Like dropping something into the river, you never know where it will end up. Love given to children in the family may bear fruit in the next generation. We never know. Good may be done in a son's or daughter's new country from the seeds of faith planted at home. Part of life is trial and effort. Jesus' attitude was the same. He 'threw' out love like the sower throws out the seed. He knows it may fall on hard ground, but he gives it anyway. He gave love on Calvary to everyone. God is like that. It may take years to flower. God doesn't stint the seed, nor does he stint love. On your inbreath, echo the word 'love'. On the outbreath send this love to someone who may need it now. May I live, Lord, in your love that never ends?
