Reconciliation Service for Easter on Tuesday: Rathmolyon church at 7pm and Jordanstown at 8pm. Pope Francis surprised many recently by responding that the best description of himself was: "I am a sinner". Pope Francis also set out a challenge for us all: 'I would like to ask you - but don't say it aloud, everyone respond in his or her own heart: when was the last time you made your confession? Two days, two weeks, two years, twenty years, forty years? And if much time has passed, do not lose another day. Be courageous he said and go to Confession! Jesus will receive you; he will receive you with so much love. (Visiting priests available for Confessions).

Please pray for Mary Geraghty, Ballinaskea, Mary Holton, Castleknock, Johnny Hackett, Johnstownbridge, and Fr. Lauri Halpin retired P.P. Kilbeggan who died during the week. R.I.P.

Welcome Rachel Olive Murray, Daniel John Dunne & Erin Donoghue Byrne

Today's Gospel: Playing our Part

We tend to be uncomfortable with audience participation, especially when it is sprung on us at the last minute. Many people get embarrassed or clam up when a microphone is thrust in their face. TV audience members can even look uncomfortable when expected to sing or clap along to a performance. I was once cajoled up on stage with a friend during a comedy show, and I still cringe at the memory. More than most, today's liturgy calls for our participation. First, we are caught up in the drama of Jesus' triumphant entrance into Jerusalem. We are comfortable enough with this – holding up our palm branches and imagining ourselves celebrating and supporting Jesus as he arrives into town riding on a colt. But our participation takes on a darker tone during the reading of the Passion, and we soon find ourselves joining in with those who question and accuse Jesus. Before long we are shouting 'Crucify him! Crucify him!' and taunting Jesus on the cross to 'save himself if he is the Christ of God'. It is enough to make even the most complacent among us uncomfortable. Palm Sunday and Good Friday are the only two occasions when the congregation is invited to take part in the reading of the Gospel. What strikes you as you play your part today?
