Today's Gospel: Another Story: One day David gave alms to a poor man he met on the street. As he walked away he began to glow with self satisfaction. But then a shadow passed over him - he remembered that the poor man hadn't thanked him. Later he related the incident to his rabbi. The rabbi listened patiently, then said, “How did you feel when you gave the alms?” “I felt very pleased with myself”, David replied. “Wasn't that sufficient reward for you?” “I still think he might have thanked me”, David persisted. “Surely you don't want to be thanked for behaving, as a religious man should? By the way, did you thank God?” “For what?” asked David in surprise. “For giving you an opportunity of being an instrument of his love towards a fellow human being”, came the reply.

Success in Life: “The man is a success who has lived well, laughed often, and loved much; who has gained the respect of intelligent men and the love of children; who has filled his niche and accomplished his task; who leaves the world better than he found it, whether by an improved poppy, a perfect poem, or a rescued soul; who never lacked appreciation of earth's beauty or failed to express it; who looked for the best in others and gave the best he had. His memory is a benediction.” - Robert Louis Stevenson.
