Success is speaking words of praise. In cheering other people’s ways. In doing just the best you can, with every task and every plan. It’s silence when your speech would hurt. Politeness when your neighbours’ curt. Its deafness when scandal flows and sympathy with others’ woes. It’s when duty calls. It’s courage when disaster falls. It’s found in laughter and in song. It’s the silent time of prayer. In happiness and despair. In all of life and nothing less. We find the things we call Success.”

Eucharistic Adoration Today we would like to say a word of thanks and encouragement to all who take part in Eucharistic Adoration in our parish
Here is a short reflection from Pope Benedict XVI on how we can allow the Holy Spirit to guide our prayer before the Blessed Sacrament - “We know how true it is when St Paul says: “we do not know how to pray as we ought”. We want to pray, but we do not have the words, the language, to speak with God, not even the thought. We can only open ourselves, set our time at the disposal of God, waiting for him to help us. The Apostle says: this very lack of words is a prayer that the Holy Spirit not only understands, but carries, interprets, to God. It is precisely our weakness which becomes, through the Holy Spirit, true prayer, true contact with God. The Holy Spirit is almost the interpreter who makes God and us understand what we want to say.”

Today’s Gospel: Our lives are lightened by people we can trust. We need to trust so much in life. We know the great pain when our trust is shaken by people we thought we could trust — parents/ teachers/ the church/ friends and more. In the gospel today Jesus addresses that need and grace in our lives. He encourages us to place our trust in those who care for us, and to trust in God who does not want destruction/ but development/ who wants peace among people in all sorts of ways. In what do we trust? Pagola writes: ‘some feel a need to consume more in order to feel secure; and seek a life of entertainment to forget their every-day problems’ (The Gospel According to Matthew/ p. 106). Jesus tells us to trust in God, who would not harm even a hair of our head. He asks and urges us to be people who would not harm another. We are worth this care and love just by being created. Like a parent or grandparent/ or an aunt or uncle/ totally loving a new child before the child is even seen, so God loves each of us. The sight of a starving child brings out our love and a desire to care. This is linked to the care of God: in this care and trust of each other we find the trust and care of God/ given and received for ‘where there is love, there is God Just echo the word ‘trust’ as you sit in silence; let this gift and call of trust fill your being. Sacred heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in you
